Maquita is my oldest sister and I love and miss her so much I miss everything about her and the times we had together it feels like yesterday and I don't know what to say. Well about a year ago my mother died and she was maquita mother also now I have to deal with the hardcore soul and heart pain the never go away are gets better I just got to learn how to deal with this pain and eventually I will with gods help. Deedee your girls have gotten so big now and there beautiful as you know just like you and mama Jackie and tarell are ok we be ok anyway we miss y'all and save a spot for me right beside y'all fly high my queens until we meet again rest and don't laugh to hard at grandma
