Mr. Anthony Leon Love

NOV 9, 1970 - MAY 7, 2020

Deacon Anthony Leon Love was born to Sister Louise Love and Brother Alonza L. Wilson on November 9, 1970 in York, Alabama. He was later born into The Pentecostal Church of God and was a believer in Jesus Christ and served as a deacon until his health failed.

A skillful basketball player in the Sumter County School System, Anthony graduated from Sumter County High School in 1990.

He united in holy matrimony to his loving soulmate, Patricia McCoy on November 8, 2013 in York, AL. Anthony was employed by Prystup Packaging Products in Livingston, AL where he was a dedicated worker. His love for family and friends was infectious and gatherings would most likely be entertained with his jokes and his “smooth” dance moves. At God’s command, Deacon Anthony Love’s earthly journey ended on May 7, 2020 at Anderson Hospital in Meridian, MS and his soul gained rest. Dea. Love was preceded in death by: his father, Alonzo L. Wilson; his brother, Michael Evan Love; his grandparents: Alonzo C. and Margaret Wilson; James T. Sr., and Jo Betty Love.

He leaves to cherish his loving memories and will be greatly missed by: his loving wife, Patricia McCoy Love; his loving mother, Louise Wilson; two brothers: Gregory L. Wilson and Darnell O. Wilson; three sisters: Jacqueline (Stanley) Jemison, Carolyn M. Donald, and Cassandra D. Wilson; stepson, Andre (Renee) McCoy; a precious granddaughter, Cateleya; and a host of uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces, cousins, in-laws, friends, classmates, coworkers, and the entire Pentecostal Church of God family.
