Through these avenues, she fostered many friendships in her community, such as the American Cancer Society's Relay for Life. Carla married Carrio Perkins, the love of her life on March 20, 2004. To this union were born two wonderful children, Jayda and Amir. She adored her children. There was not anything she wouldn't do for them. She invested all . she had in them to ensure success. Carla had the gift of developing special relationships with her family and friends. She had a unique and timeless bond with her first cousins. She also had a great sense of humor; her smile and laughter would brighten your day. She took joy doing all she could to bring people together. She had a servant heart. Her hands were rarely still. She spent a lot of her time doing all she could to encouraging others in becoming their personal best. Carla lived a courageous life. She lived a victorious life.
