Mrs. Louise Clayton

FEB 16, 1934 - AUG 28, 2017

Louise (Lil Sister) Clayton was born on the 16th day of February in the year 1934. She was one of the twin daughters of Lucille Clayton Brown and Les Howard. Louise spent most of her life working as a home maker both professionally and as a labor of love. She dedicated her life to the care of her daughter and grandchildren. In her leisure time, Louise enjoyed fishing, gardening, and talking on the phone with her sisters. She was a woman that opened her doors to family and friends in their time of need. Louise Clayton was well known for her infectious smile and her big warm heart. She was known throughout the town as a kind and generous woman. She let her family know that when it was her time to depart this Earth, "Tell everyone I love them!" She is survived by her daughter; Deborah Ann Clayton, and her grandchildren; Keytonia(Chiketta)McClendon, Shelia McClendon, and Berotte McClendon. Great Grandchildren; Amiyah McClendon, Joshua McClendon, Marquez McClendon, Hollie Culpepper Sisters; Bernice Clayton, Dorothy Radford, Barbara Ross, and Patricia Clayton. And a host of beloved nephews, nieces, great nephews and nieces.
