Mrs. Adeline Hamilton

JUL 10, 1946 - JAN 4, 2024

Mrs. Adeline Frazier Hamilton was born July 10, 1946 in Hazard, KY to the late George and Lillie Mae Frazier. "Quet", as she was affectionately known, departed this life on January 4, 2024 at Ochsner Watkins Hospital in Quitman, MS. She is preceded in death by her parents, George and Lillie Frazier, 4 sisters and 2 brothers and a good friend, Clifton Terrell.

"Quet" was the QUEEN of County Rd 260, where she lived a full and happy life. If you wanted to know anything that happened on 260, call Quet. Although she did not go many places, people who came under the tree took to her kindness. She didn't meet a stranger and had the utmost respect for everyone she encountered. The love of outdoors and a good fire was her favorite past time.

She was educated in the Hazard Kentucky School System and was employed in the health field for many years. In the mid 60s, she united in Holy Matrimony to the late Jessie Hamilton, Sr and to this union 3 children were born, Angela, Joyce and Jessie, Jr. Later in life, Quet met Daniel "Lil Buddy" Gaines and they became a family.

Quet leaves to cherish her memories: her children, Angela Hamilton, Joyce (Paul) Brown and Jessie Hamilton, Jr, all of Shubuta, MS; her live-in partner, Daniel "Lil Buddy" Gaines of Shubuta, MS; her grandchildren, Jessica Miller, Aaron Miller, Patrick Johnson, Jonkheer Burns, Jr. Aden Hamilton, Reggie Hamilton, Jaiden Hamilton, Haiden Jones and Jalisa Pearson; her sisters, Brenda Hill of Eastaboga, AL, Gerry Hamilton of Hazard, KY and Lillie B. Cook of Washington, DC; her five great-grandchildren; her nieces and nephews; her extended County Road 260 neighbors and friends; a special neighbor, Ricky "Rip" Duncan and other relatives and friends.
