

Mrs. Deborah Ann McClendon

November 22, 1955 - December 23, 2018

Deborah (Bird) Clayton McClendon was born on the 22nd day of November in the year 1955. She was the only child of Louise "Lil Sister" Clayton and Irvin Clay Mosley. Though she was the only child, she was raised with a multitude of cousins whom she thought of as sisters and brothers. She would also develop a father/daughter bond with Henry "Mr. Bee" Thompson whom played a loving role in her life. Deborah spent most of her life as a homemaker and dedicated her days to seeing after the well being of her three children. She loved the outdoors, music, cooking, talking to with relatives, and developed a deep love for technology. She enjoyed any opportunity to travel, go fishing, and visits from her grandkids.

Deborah gave her life to Christ at an early age and continued to devote her time to studying the Bible and going deeper into his Word. Deborah and her mom spent most evenings reading and highlighting scriptures in the Bible. She was kind and giving in every sense of the word.

She is survived by her sons Keytonia (Ketta) McClendon, Berotte McClendon, daughter Shelia McClendon and her grandchildren; Amiyah McClendon, Marquez McClendon, Joshua McClendon, Hollie Culpepper. And a host of cousins she knew as sisters and brothers.

“ This is our beloved family member. I don't know where to start about her she will be miss dearly by her children's and grandchildren her closest family member. She was a very smart young woman can do anything she set her mind to do now she is joining her mother and aunts and grandmother they all welcome her with open arms. There no more worries and pain I love you and will miss you. Love Phillys
